HONGKONG, AUGUST 25TH, 1891.

Mr. Forwood, Secretary to the Admiralty. recently made the remarkable statement that the navel departments of the Government now work from 20 to 30 per cent. cheaper than the private traders who compete with them. It would be interesting to cross-examine Mr. Forwood on this statement and ascertain exactly what it means. BEFORE HIS HONOUR SIR JAM 8 RUSSELL A private trader has to make his charges sufficient to cover permanent expenses, interest on capital, and cost of labour and material. If in making up the Government accounts the first two of these items are raising the Tweed and what the Dock Company would have done the work for. If only the divers' wages are to be charged to
